Heroic Witnesses

The Triumph of Persecuted Catholics in Russia

Sister Maria Stella, C.J.D.

Sister Maria Stella Whittier, C.J.D., a missionary to Russia, speaks about the history of Catholic priests, sisters, and laity in Russia from 1917 to the present. Sister Maria begins with the persecution and almost total destruction of the Catholic Church under communism when millions were killed or imprisoned in Soviet labor camps, and ends with post-communist era efforts to revive the Catholic Church in the Russian Far East.

“This talk is filled with so much truth that will touch our hearts.”

Mickey Kelly

“I had no idea about the history of the church in Russia. This is an eye opener!”

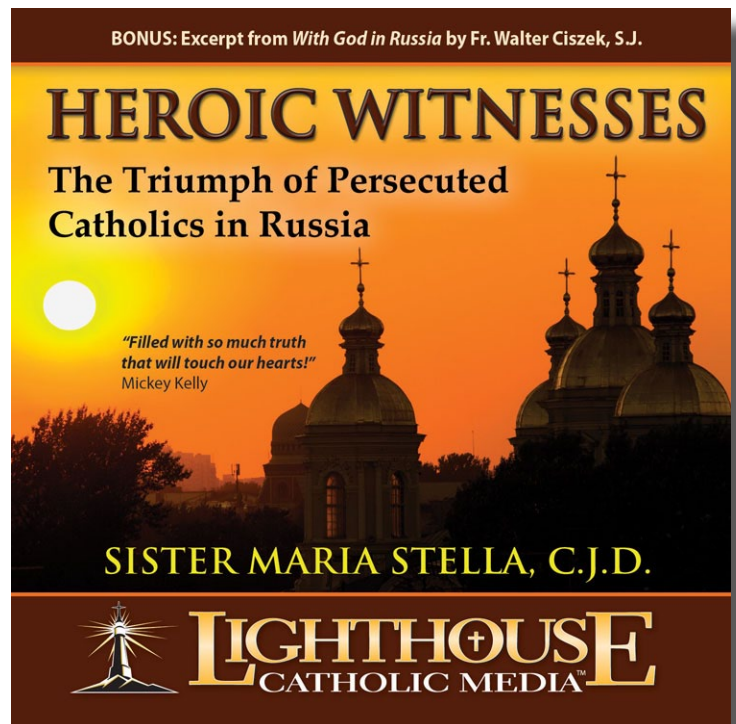

Julie - St. Petersburg, FL

“Imagine if all our Catholic privileges are taken away... Would we be heroic like these Russian martyrs? This presentation challenges me to appreciate the sacraments and sacramentals while I still have them.”

Theresa - Antelope Valley, CA

“Just when we thought it was safe to freely practice your religion, a CD comes out reminding us not to be too self assured! These stories of life without God show how brave, blessed souls clung to the the Holy Mass to keep the Presence of Jesus alive in their darkness.”

Julie - Sterling, VA

“Listening to this talk reminds me of how blessed we are and how important prayer is to protect our future.”

Charlie - Hunt Valley, MD

“May we be ready to suffer for our Faith as the Russians did!”

Daniel Brock
