Life is an adventure, and while everything you do and every decision you make is aimed at making you happy, you may step back from time to time and ask yourself, “Why am I here?” and “Is there a deeper meaning to life?” To find these answers, you need to go beyond the distractions of the world and be open to discovering your true purpose and potential. If you find your true purpose, you’ll discover that you really are “made for more” than what our culture has to offer. You’ll see life as the adventure it’s meant to be, and you’ll find that you have an irreplaceable role to play in the world.

Although adopted into a Catholic family and raised in a faith-filled home, Curtis Martin’s college years at Louisiana State University found him wrestling with many of the same questions young people are asking today—questions about faith, life’s meaning, and his purpose in the world. From this experience, Martin’s vision for FOCUS was born. Today there are more than 250 FOCUS missionaries serving on nearly 50 campuses across the United States. Curtis is the author of several books, and is also co-host of the groundbreaking EWTN show Crossing the Goal.

“Curtis Martin is one of the most compelling, engaging Catholic voices on the North American scene, and ‘Made for More’ reconfirms his gift for reaching people with the message of Jesus Christ. Read this book. I highly recommend it.”
