Exponiendo una Tradicón Peligrosa

(Exposing a Dangerous Tradition: What Does the Church Say?)

Rubén Quezada

The occult religions combine aspects of Catholic rites with superstitions, black or white magic, Santeria, Voodoo and Satanism. During an interview in the studios of Radio Guadalupe in Los Angeles, Rubén Quezada exposes the spiritual risks of those involved in these rituals. Rubén quotes from Scripture, confirming that these practices are in direct contradiction to the Word of God, and explains why we as Catholics must avoid any contact or association with such practices and adhere only to the teachings of the Church.

“This recording will prove to be a valuable tool in the effort to liberate people from this pernicious legacy, and to educate them in the Faith... The speaker unmasks the anti-divine nature of these occultist ‘traditions’ which pose grave dangers to souls and which we should help eradicate.”
